INTRODUCTORY NOTES.

1. Two hundred years are not a very long time, and yet owing to the neglect of recording details, much interesting and valuable parochial history has been lost, and the generations of families broken and confused. Had the Rectors or Registrars given a thought to the probable wishes of posterity, our records would doubtless be full and minute. Christ Church has the most complete of any I have read; the proceedings of the vestry extending back to about the beginning of the last century. Some of the incidents are sorrowfully amusing. St. Michael's, of Charleston, and St. Mark's Ciarendon, have lost their records by fire; St. John's Berkley, by military theft; Beaufort, by decay; St. Thomas, some by fire and others misplaced. It is to be desired that the vestries of those parishes who retain any record of their past will follow this example of their brethren of St. Thomas and St. Denis, and print them for the benefit of the Church and State. The present depositories of these archives are by no means fire-proof, and the publication of these annals and registers, placed in public or private libraries, seems to be the only mode of preserving the few remains of our parochial history.

2. To save expense it has been found expedient to give the historical facts without comment, and hence the form of annals.

The chairman of the vestry, during a recent visit at the North, sought information at the libraries of Harvard and Yale, for the most comprehensive method of arranging the registers, but found nothing satisfactory. The plan adopted seems to be the most simple. Where the same name is in each list it can be easily traced. The names of the wives are given alphabetically among those of their husbands. In the baptismal register the date of birth is also given; the families of the same name grouped according to date. In the burial list the date of death is generally given; that of burial only when the former is not given; sometimes both. It seems as if the registrars had noted acts performed by the rectors in other parishes, and also of deaths of parishioners elsewhere. For nearly four years I have been reading and examining every source of information of which I could learn. There was a vast amount of notes, but when digested the remains are the meagre annals presented. The present arrangement of the old records of the parish was the most troublesome, and four written reviews were required before no error could be found.

I am much indebted to the kind aid of Langdon Cheves, Esq., and especially in the preparation of the history of the Beresford Family, which it is proposed to publish hereafter in the pamphlet concerning the Beresford Bounty Fund. Many additions have been made to the burial list from inscriptions in the several cemeteries, of which no record had been made from 1790 to 1823. By this neglect we have lost the list of marriages and births or baptisms during the same time. It is evident, from a study of the registers, that some dates are erroneous; the same name spelled differently; that very many of the French records are wanting; that there was great neglect to obtain full returns from many families, and in some cases of entire generations.

New matter may hereafter come to light. I have done the best I could with my material amid professional duties and much family sickness.

The apparently rapid extinction of the parish, ecclesiastically; the former neglect to preserve records; the use it may be for diocesan church history, family genealogies, &c., have influenced the Vestry to perform this, which they believe to be, a religious and patriotic duty.

3. The Dutarque is the only one of the original families remaining in the parish. Now Dutart.

4. The three cemeteries are known by the names of

(1) The Brick Church—the Parish Church.

(2) The Old Ruins—Charity Meeting—Methodist Church.

(3) Pompion Hill—The Chapel.

5. It is my impression, though I have forgotten to search the Journals of the Diocese in charge of the Registrar, that, like many of the Colonial Churches, the Parish Church and Pompion Hill Chapel have never been consecrated, unless by the devout worship of successive generations.

6. B. B. S. among burials—Beresford Bounty Scholars.

7. There are a few entries of free negroes in the first register, or until 1790. In the second, are the names, baptisms, confirmations, communions, marriages, burials, &c., of very many slaves until the close of the late war. The names of owners are also recorded.

The Rev. Francis H. Rutledge was the first Rector to record confirmations, communicants, &c. The last register contains the arrangement of the former two, as herein printed, with the inscriptions copied from the tomb-stones, lists of parishioners, families, communicants, confirmations, &c., from 1827, and other information thought worthy of preservation.

8. St. Thomas and the other parishes were originally created Church of England, and not civil parishes, and so continued until South Carolina became a State. Ramsay Eccles. Hist., p. 5.

THE ANNALS OF
ST. THOMAS AND ST. DENIS PARISH, SOUTH CAROLINA.

The peninsula formed by the Cooper and Wando Rivers, was probably settled by a few families, before Old Charlestown was removed to Oyster Point. Gradually others found homes on the banks of both streams, until about 1680 they had extended to the limit of navigation. These were chiefly from England. During the next five years, thirty-two French families settled in the interior, mostly from French Quarter Creek to the Cooper. The greater number had been sent to the Province by King Charles II., at his own expense, in two vessels, at the earlier date. They cultivated the vine, olive and mulberry, and engaged in the manufacture of wine, oil and silk. A small church was erected, in which divine worship was occasionally celebrated by the Rev. Mr. Prioleau and the Rev. Dr. LeJeu. The services were well attended. The names of these Huguenot families, as the earliest on record in the Parish Register, are supposed to have been Bonneau, Bochetti, Bellin, Bremar, Brabant, Bossard, Carriere, DuPre, Dutarque, DeLonguemar, Durant, Duberdeaux, Dubois, Guerin, Joly, Jaudon, LeJeu, Leroux, Lesesne, Mouzon, Marbeuf, Poitvine, Roulain, St. Martin, Simons or Symonds, Syer, Sallens, Tresvin, Verine, Verone, Videau and Warbeuf. If there is any public record extant of the original grants of their lands, a more correct list might be made.

1702. The Society for the Propagation for the Gospel in Foreign parts, chartered June 16, 1700, by William III., sent out the Rev. Samuel Thomas, as a Missionary to the Yemassee Indians; but on his arrival he was appointed by Governor Sir Nathaniel Johnson to succeed the Rev. Mr. Corbin in ministering to the families settled on the three branches of the Cooper River, and to make Goose Creek his chief place of residence. He reported that the French had 50 communicants. Mr. Thomas died in 1706.

1703. Pompion Hill Chapel was erected on the east side of the east branch of the Cooper. It was built of cypress, 30 feet square. The funds were contributed by Sir. N. Johnson and private subscription. The Cemetery, on the original map, was 400 feet square. It was the first Church of England edifice erected outside of Charleston.

1704 The Rev. Mr. Thomas reported to the Society that the people on the eastern branch of the Cooper, of which he had the care, numbered 80 Church and 20 dissenting families. Communicants 45; heathen slaves about 200, of whom 20 can read.

1706 St. Thomas Parish was laid off November 30, but its boundaries were first defined December 18, 1708: "To the northeast by the bounds of Craven County; to the south by the bounds of Christ Church Parish and the Wando River; to the west by the Cooper River to that tract of land commonly called the Hagin, inclusive; and to the north by the eastern branch of Cooper River to the plantation of Sir Nathaniel Johnson, Governor, exclusive; and then by an east line from the northmost part of said plantation to the bounds of Craven County." This was amended by an Act passed March 5, 1736-7; "bounded by the most northerly branch of the said eastern branch of the Cooper River."

The French settlement called Orange Quarter, from the principality of that name in Avignon, France, fell ^{Shipp.} within the boundaries of St. Thomas. As few of the people understood the English language, it was erected into a distinct parish, and called St. Denis, from the battlefield in the vicinity of Paris, where Admiral Coligny and the Prince of Condé met the Catholic ^{Shipp.} forces and slew their commander, Montmorenci. It was thus practically made a Church of England Parish. Hence, the people being poor, they petitioned the Assembly for the public allowance for an Episcopal minister, who should give them the English Liturgy and French sermons. The amount granted to their first missionary, Rev. John LePierre, was £20 for present relief, October 11, 1711; £50 additional, April 2, 1712; and in the next June 7, the amount was increased to £100 per annum. The church edifice was made the Chapel of Ease to the Parish Church, December 18, 1708.

The Parish Church, now called the Brick Church, ¹⁷⁰³ about three miles from Cainhoy, on the old Clement's Ferry Road, was authorized by the Assembly, 1706. It was begun the next year and finished in 1708, which date was engraved on one of the bricks. The Glebe lands were 200 acres for the Parish Church and 420 acres for the Pompion Hill Chapel. The money allowed by the government for the Parsonage was insufficient, and placed at interest until it should amount to the sum required.

The Rev. Thomas Hasell, lately a catechist in ¹⁷⁰⁹ Charleston, was appointed by the Society P. G. F. P. ^{Humphrey.} as the missionary to this Parish.

Rev. Mr. Hasell writes to the Society that he had ¹⁷¹¹ baptized two negroes, husband and wife, and an Indian slave: all well instructed in the Christian religion; taught to read their Bible by their master and mistress, who presented them. He was very successful. The young Frenchmen who understood English constantly attended his ministry. "The books sent out by the Society to be distributed by him were of great use, especially the Common Prayer Books given to the young people of the French and to the Dissenters' children."

- 1713 He reported 120 families, including the French.
- 1714 In the old Parish Register there is the duplicate or copy of a Warrant on the Public Receiver for £40: for Clerk, £10; Sexton, £5; Registrar, £5; building a south porch to the Parish Church, £18 3s. 7d.; for the use of the poor, £1 16s. 5d. Signed, Richard Harris, Josias Dupree, Wardens; Nathaniel Ford, Philip Chevers, Richard Smith, Peter Simons, Vestrymen; Thomas Hasell, Rector.
- 1716 Mr. Hasell writes that the French desired the Liturgy to be translated into their own language.
- 1718 Vestry's warrant to Alex. Paris, Public Receiver, to pay the Psallary of Mr. Saville Scriven, schoolmaster of the Parish of St. Thomas, Tenne pounds.
- 1721 March 17. Richard Beresford, Esq, died, and by his will bequeathed the nett profits of his estate to the Vestry of St. Thomas Parish, in trust, until his son John, then 8 years of age, should arrive at the age of 21 years. One-third of the interest was to be paid to schoolmasters, and two-thirds to support, maintain and educate such poor children of the parish as should be sent to the school, to learn reading, writing, casting accounts, the languages and mathematics, &c. If no school, the money to put to interest, &c.
- 1723 The Rev. Wm. Bull, Commissary, &c., writes to the S. P. G.: "St. Thomas is a large and populous parish. There are two churches, two glebes, but no parsonage. Rev. Mr. Hasell has been here fourteen years, residing on his own estate and in a house of his own."
- 1728 The population of St. Thomas consisted of 565 whites, 950 negroes, 60 Indian slaves, 20 free negroes, or about 1600 hundred souls.

The Vestry requested the Bishop of London to send them a qualified schoolmaster.

The Rev. John LePierre, first missionary to the French, died.

Richard Harris, John Moore, Francis Goddard,^{Chancery Reports.} John Stewart and Robert Daniel, Esq., were vestrymen, and co-defendants with the Rector and Thomas Broughton, executor, &c., in a suit by John Beresford, minor, &c., for £100 sterling, as additional allowance for his support, and £400 for his apprentice fee to Samuel Wragg, merchant, London, which he gained.

There was at this date a Presbyterian Church at Cainhoy, the Rev. Josias Smith, grandson of Land-shippgrave Smith, being the minister. He removed to Charleston, and became associate pastor of the Independent Church, in 1734. The remains of this church are now called the Old Ruins.

The Rev. John James Tissot was appointed mis-¹⁷³⁰ sionary to St. Denis by the Bishop of London. Dalcho.

Richard Harris, for many years Senior Warden,¹⁷³² died, and bequeathed £500 currency, to be placed at Dalcho. interest until it should amount to £1000, for the Par. Reg. education, &c., of the poor children of the parish.

John Beresford became of age, and the final pay-¹⁷³² ment of the estate completed the sum of £6500 cur- Ramsay, II. p. 198. rency, received by the Vestry. The Rev. Mr. Bull, in 1723, wrote that £150 Carolina money was equal to £120 sterling. Hence, the Beresford Endowment was originally £5200 sterling, or $26,000, and money was of greater value then than now.

The Vestry were incorporated, chiefly, that they¹⁷³⁶ might legally manage the Beresford and Harris trusts.^{May 29, 3 Stat., S. C., p. 431} It was the only Vestry incorporated before the Revolutionary war. The Rectors of parishes were ex-officio Colonial Church Act, Sec. xv. incorporated, and possessed the usual powers of incorporated bodies.

An Act was passed by the Assembly to allow the¹⁷³⁹

Vestry to take out of their capital stock and interest a sufficient sum for building a school.

£1200 was paid for a plantation of 600 acres, with convenient buildings, within a mile of the Parish Church. The balance of the money was placed at interest on landed security, and called the Beresford Bounty Fund. The first investment thus seems to have been in 1740, when Thomas Ashby gave a mortgage on his plantation of 500 acres for £500.

The Vestry applied to the Bishop of London for an assistant to the rector (Hasell being infirm), and who might instruct the higher classes in the school, the education so far having been confined to the lower branches, as reading, writing and arithmetic.

The Rev. Alexander Garden, nephew to the commissary, arrived in the parish, and was elected, July 18, the teacher of languages. Mr. Garden, also, took charge of the parish.

1744

November 9. The Rector, the Rev. Mr. Hasell, died. Had been Rector for thirty-five years. The Vestry wrote to the S. P. G. to appoint the Rev. Mr. Garden as his successor.

1747

An Act was passed declaring Pompion Hill to be the Chapel of Ease. The Rector to have service the third Sunday in each month. The Act of the Assembly, December 18, 1708, which declared St. Denis (French) to be the Chapel of Ease, was repealed.

The Rev. Mr. Garden informed the S. P. G. that the French Refugees were dead, and their descendants, understanding English, had united themselves with the Church.

Rev. Mr. Garden had been infirm for fifteen months. 1758

The new chapel at Pompion Hill was begun—to be 1763 of brick, 48x35 feet—£3000 for the outside, £1000 for the inside. £200 were given by the Assembly. Gabriel Manigault, Esq., gave £50 sterling and 960 brick tiles for the floor, valued at £10. They are in good condition, 1884. Rev. Mr. Garden reports that the school is flourishing. "Eight poor children are clothed, boarded and educated, i. e., taught reading, writing and arithmetic, to fit them for apprentices. Many of the former pupils living in the world are good Christians, and respected as sober, industrious and useful citizens of society."

Pompion Hill Chapel was finished by private sub- 1765 gregation were given to the Vestry for the benefit of the poor of St. Thomas Parish. Among the Rules ordered by the Vestry for the school, were :

III. The master shall bring the children to church every Lord's Day when there is public worship, and shall teach them to behave with all reverence while they are in the house of God; and to join in the public service of the church ; for which purpose they are to be furnished with Bibles and Prayer Books as soon as they can use them.

IV. The master shall use prayers, morning and evening, in school, and teach the children to pray, and to say grace before and after meals.

1771 March 31. The amount of bonds at interest belonging to the Beresford Bounty Fund was £16,013 3s. 11d. currency. Using the former proportionate value of £150 currency to £120 sterling, the amount was about £12,800 sterling, or $64,000.

1778 May 4. The parishioners held a meeting and resolved to raise a fund for the support of an Episcopal minister and a parish clerk, and for the repairs of the Church and Chapel.
Beresford Will, Pamphlet, p. 20.

177- The church plate was buried with that of the Rev. Robert Smith (afterwards first Bishop of South Carolina), by Mauder, his overseer, beneath a tree on his plantation, Brabant. Mander, having been suspended from the same tree three times, to force the secret of the location of the silver, in vain, was released by the British officer. He declared that the sacredness of the communion vessels, only, restrained him from confessing. Two cups or chalices now remain (1884), one dated 1711 ; the other 1753. The plates are of this century.

Irving. On Benevento plantation there was a sharp skirmish between a detachment of Marion's Brigade and a corps of Cavalry under Tarleton's command. An old inhabitant (1843) remembers to have seen the bones of the slain whitening in the sun. The French Quarter Creek runs between Benevento and Spring Hill plantations.

1781 Lieut.-Col. Coates, in command of 500 infantry and 100 cavalry, was attacked by Lieut.-Col. Lee with the Legion, and Lieut.-Col. Hampton with the State cavalry. Generals Marion and Sumter, coming up with reinforcements, continued the engagement. The Irving.

Americans killed and wounded 40 of the British and took 140 prisoners, and a large quantity of baggage, several wagons and above 100 horses. Those who fell were buried by the roadside, from Quimby Avenue to Quimby Bridge. The Wando was the scene of many skirmishes. The British at one time fortified Cainhoy, and the Americans searched vessels passing up and down the river.

No meeting of the Vestry had been held. The funds ¹⁷⁷⁹ ⁸³ were greatly reduced, as the debts were paid in paper money or "continentals."

The Rev. Alexander Garden, having been Rector ¹⁷⁸³ for thirty-nine years, died.

By Act of the State Legislature the Vestry were ¹⁷⁸¹ allowed to sell the two glebes and purchase one more central. By the same Act, the old charter was re-^{4 Stat.,} renewed and the former corporate powers invested in ^{S. C., p. 583} the wardens and vestrymen for the time being, and their successors. The title of St. Denis was renewed, and joined with that of St. Thomas, as one parish.

The Rev. Wm. Smith (nephew to the Bishop) was ¹⁷⁸⁵ elected Rector, and continued until 1788, when he ¹⁷⁸⁸ resigned.

The Rev. Samuel Nesbit became Rector. He left ¹⁷⁹² the State in 1793.

The Rev. George Pogson was Rector. He died of ¹⁷⁹³ yellow fever, in Charleston, in 1794.

The Rev. John Thompson became Rector. No other ¹⁷⁹⁶ record of him. He left no register.

The Rev. George T. Nankivel was Rector, and ¹⁷⁹⁻ served until 1809, when he returned to England. No register.

The Rev. Joseph Warren became Rector, and died ¹⁸¹¹ in 1815. No register of his ministry extant.

An Act was passed authorizing the Vestry to dis-¹⁸¹⁶ pose of the original school tract of land, except the school-house and necessary number of acres for use. ^{6 Stat.,} ^{S. C., p. 42.}

This last was sold by the Vestry on Easter Monday,

- 1883, for about $1 per acre. The house had disappeared years ago.
- 1815 The Parish Church was destroyed by a fire in the woods.
- 1818 An Act was passed allowing the Vestry to loan the school money, in amounts, manner and security, at their discretion.
8 Stat., S. C., p. 298
- 1819 The Parish Church was rebuilt, 27x37 and 22 feet high; much smaller than the old building. No glebe. 212 white inhabitants.
- 1823-7 The Rev. Edward Rutledge, Rector. No register.
- 1827-39 The Rev. Francis H. Rutledge (afterwards Bishop of Florida), Rector. Full register.
- 1842-52 The Rev. Edward Philips, Rector. Register very complete.
- 1842 Pompion Hill Chapel. The walls threatened to fall; grass grew in the building; the shrubbery was a wilderness; trees grew so thickly that access to the graveyard and one of the church doors was very difficult.
Irving, p. 63.
- 1843 This year the avenue to the Chapel has been cleared, the undergrowth removed, trees trimmed, and the Chapel about to be restored.
Irving, p. 68.
- 1852-3 The Rev. John H. Cornish, Rector.
- 1853-60 The Rev. J. Stuart Hanckel, Rector.
- 1856 An Act passed confirming the purchase of a lot near the village of Louisville,* for a school-house. And a general power was conferred on the Vestry to purchase property, real and personal, with the Beresford Fund, and the same to hold and resell, at their discretion, for the purposes of the charity.
Stat. 12, 58.
- 1860-65 The Rev. J. Julius Sams, Rector. The Rectory near the Parish Church, occupied by the Rector, was burned by the Federal troops. A new glebe had been purchased many years before this date, and the house shortly after erected.
- 1867-77 The Rev. Edward C. Logan, Rector.

*Cainhoy.

A Methodist Church was organized, and a portion¹⁸⁷⁵ of the congregation of the Episcopal Church, who were dissenters, joined the movement.

An Act was passed allowing the Vestry to discon-¹⁸⁷⁸tinue the support of children in the school, and confining their efforts to their education, until otherwise ordered by the Legislature.

April 6. The Rev. Robert F. Clute was elected¹⁸⁸⁰ Rector, including the instruction of the school children as a part his duties.

The public school, which had been connected with¹⁸⁸¹ the Beresford school for about thirty years, was separated from the latter, on the complaint of some non-Episcopalians, who were new residents, and have since removed.

The buildings and grounds were enclosed by new¹⁸⁸¹⁻³ fences. The former put in repair, and both white-washed.

The Parish Church is in excellent condition, and¹⁸⁸³ outwardly, excepting the doors, is fire-proof. The graveyard is without fence, and though cleaned during the winter, is overgrown in summer with bushes. The grave-stones are in sad neglect; some fallen, some broken, all more or less covered with mould or dirt. The old vestry-room, in one corner, is probably about 175 years old. It is mentioned in R. Beresford's will, 1715, and very likely was built at the same time as the church, in 1708. The Vestry hold their Easter-meeting there. The Pompion Hill Chapel is one of the very few colonial chapels remaining as built. The floor is tiled, the seats face the aisle, the pulpit, with sounding board and prayer chancel, are at the vestry end, and the communion chancel at the opposite end of the aisle. The building is cracked on the chancel and river sides, which will soon be repaired, but is, otherwise, in good condition. The graveyard has recently been cleaned. Some of the graves, and the first Rector's (Mr. Hasell), have disappeared into the river. In both yards many have been buried whose graves have become obliterated, and others of whom no record has been made in any register. But two families remain to attend the chapel. There are but five church families on the Wando, and they attend services at the School House Chapel. Nearly thirty white families live about Hell Hole Swamp, and twenty at Cainhoy and elsewhere. The old family residences, with very few exceptions, are going to ruin rapidly.
